be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will prevent the attack of croup. In the early stages of croup, anxiety may be caused by the mother, and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depend-upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by DAY BROS. Co.

Ilvester Howard has moved from Lambrie to Mountain, Ky.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich., says, "That restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For Sale by DAY BROS. Co.
Every box warranted.

It is our intention to make a good many improvements to our paper by January 1, and make it what we started out to do, the newest paper in the mountains. We already have the largest circulation in this section and ask our friends to help us make it better and better all the time.

A Bargain For Farmers

The New-York Tribune Farmer, a national illustrated agricultural weekly of twenty large pages, has no superior as a thoroughly practical and helpful publication for the farmer and every member of his family, and the publishers are determined to give it a circulation unrivaled by any paper of its class in the United States.

Knowing that every enterprising farmer always reads his own local weekly newspaper, The New-York Tribune Farmer has made an exceedingly liberal arrangement which enables us to offer the two papers at so low a price that no farmer can afford to lose the opportunity.

The price of The New-York Tribune Farmer is $1.00 a year and The Breath-itt County News is $1.00 a year, but both papers sent for a full year if you forward $1.25 to the News Jackson Ky.

Send your name and address to New-York Tribune Farmer, New York City and a specimen copy of that paper will be mailed to you.

Mr. Robert Davidson has completed his new livery stable and is now able to take care of the horses of his customers.

BOONEVILLE.

Thanksgiving was generally observed in this county and the Turkey gobbler is scarce.

Snow commenced falling more than twenty-four hours ago and is still falling.

The Cooper Bros. are soon to open up a business in General Merchandise, on lower Buffalo, this county. They have worked hard for their money and we wish them much success.

John Hurst, late of Richmond, and son-in-law of the late Judge Seale, is moving to his sugar camp farm, to engage in farming.

A. J. Baker, of Cow Creek, is preparing to ship to market one of the finest ash trees in this county. It furnished him 8 ten-foot saw logs and 1 twelve foot log, and the tip of the seventh log was 24 inches in diameter.
It was perfectly sawed without a blemish.

John Begley and his brother Bud started a tie raft to Beattyville market last week, and on the way the raft bowed the bank and broke apart, and in attempting to escape John got his leg broken just below the knee and narrowly escaped with his life. He was carried home and Drs. Glass and Anderson set it. He is resting easy.

Mr. Morton, of Lexington, representing Appleton, Zimmerman & Co., who claim to own some tracts of land at and about the Forks of Sturgeon, below Travelers Rest, was here this week and made arrangements to bring suit to regain possession of said land.
The land is known as the Old Roberts property and is held by S. Isaacs and J.
F. Hard by tax titles.

Isaac Wilder has purchased the old stock of merchandise of A. H. Eversole and is now a full fledged merchant as well as Circuit Court Clerk, proprietor of the Booneville Hotel and livery stable and manager of the C. S. Coal Co.
He is now in business up to his neck.

Bro Judd, whom the conference assigned to the Booneville charge, this year, has been recalled to the Barboresville circuit and Bro Moores sent to this circuit. Wagons have just arrived from Booneville.

They were carrying a large quantity of goods, and were only to carry them to Booneville, but failed to meet them, as the Irishman would say, "they met him but he was not there."
